Duty of Candour Report 2020-2021

Duty of Candour

Duty of Candour is a legal requirement to ensure that if something goes wrong in health or social care services the people affected are offered an explanation, an apology and an assurance that staff will learn from the error. The learning is shared with the people affected and throughout Scotland.

About our organisation

Includem provides intense community-based support to young people and families that is flexible and tailored to meet their individual needs. Includem has a Duty of Candour policy in place. All staff undertake training to help them understand the Organisation’s policy and the process of the Duty of Candour which could affect them.

Incident reporting

Our Policy and Processes

When an incident occurs that necessitates the implementation of Duty of Candour:

- Staff report this to their line manager or the backup manager who is on duty
- The manager will then update the Service Manager who has responsibility for ensuring that the duty of candour procedure is followed.
- The incident is recorded, and the named staff member completes the Care Inspectorate reporting e-form.
- When an incident has happened, a learning review is arranged. This allows everyone involved to review what happened and identify changes for the future. Senior management will meet with staff to provide support and emphasise this is about learning and improving not blame.
- Employee counselling service is available for staff to access for additional support
- Where the incident arises from staff wrongdoing our disciplinary process is immediately put in place.

Duty of Candour is part of our Core training which all staff must undertake as part of their induction.
